

Volunteering Policy

Introduction

Volunteering is the commitment of time and energy for the benefit of society and the community: the environment of individuals outside one's immediate family. It is undertaken freely and by choice without concern for financial gain.

Centre for Big Synergy believes in the value of voluntary activity as an important expression of citizenship and an essential component of a free and democratic society. It supports and promotes volunteering in voluntary, statutory and community organisation. Centre for Big Synergy takes responsibility for ensuring that volunteers within its own organisation are appropriately involved, valued for their contribution and respected as colleagues.

In issuing this volunteer policy Centre for Big Synergy wishes to:

- Formally acknowledge and support the role of volunteers in its work
- Set out the principles governing the involvement of volunteers and provide a set of guidelines to ensure good practice in working with volunteers
- Encourage and enable, rather than restrict, the involvement of volunteers.

This volunteer policy and accompanying guidelines are intended for use by Centre for Big Synergy volunteers.

Volunteer Policy Statement

Centre for Big Synergy Equal Opportunities

- As an engager of volunteers, Centre for Big Synergy is committed to a policy of equal opportunities. This principle will apply to service delivery, recruitment, promotion, training, facilities, procedures and all terms and conditions.
- Volunteers will be expected to adhere to Centre for Big Synergy Equal Opportunities Policy, a copy of which can be found within the Centre for Big Synergy Volunteer Handbook.

Recruitment & Selection

- Recruitment of volunteers will be from all sections of the community, and will be in line with Centre for Big Synergy Equal Opportunities Policy. Appropriate targeting may be used.

Information & Training

- Volunteers will receive full information about their chosen area of work and will be given a clear idea of their responsibilities to Centre for Big Synergy
- Volunteers will be given induction and training in the specific tasks to be undertaken.
- Volunteers will be consulted in decisions which affect them.

Support & Supervision

- Volunteers will be assigned a named contact person for supervision and support.

Problem-Solving

- Centre for Big Synergy recognises that problems do arise and we aim to identify and resolve these problems at the earliest stage. Volunteers who have a problem of any kind should discuss it in the first instance with their named contact person.

Confidentiality

- Volunteers will be bound by the same confidentiality conditions as Centre for Big Synergy paid staff.

Expenses & Insurance

- Centre for Big Synergy will ensure that there is a clear and accessible system to enable volunteers to claim out of pocket expenses.
- Volunteers will be adequately covered by insurance while carrying out agreed duties.

Health and Safety

- All volunteers are covered by the same health and safety policies and provisions as staff.

Relations with Paid Staff

- Centre for Big Synergy is committed to ensuring that volunteers work complements the work of paid staff, and that it will not be used as a substitute for paid work.
- Steps will be taken to ensure that staff at all level is clear about the roles of volunteers and to foster good working relationships between staff and volunteers.
- Centre for Big Synergy recognises the need for training for all those working alongside and managing volunteers.

Costs

- Centre for Big Synergy) will endeavour to identify and cover the costs of involving volunteers and recognises the value of designated responsibilities within specific posts for the management of volunteers.

References

- On the basis of their voluntary work, volunteers will have the right to request a reference.

Monitoring & Evaluation

- Centre for Big Synergy will systemically monitor and evaluate its involvement of volunteers with reference to this Volunteer Policy.

Review

- This policy comes into force on 01.12.2020 and Centre for Big Synergy commits itself to review the policy as and when changes in legislation or other factors make this necessary. The policy will be subject to a comprehensive review two years after its introduction. (Review date: 30.11.2022)

Note

- “Staff” refers to paid staff and those undertaking placements with Centre for Big Synergy
- This document refers to other policies which are available in Centre for Big Synergy Volunteer Handbook.

Guidelines for Involving Volunteers

These guidelines are intended for use along with the policy statement. They give further detail on recommended good practice in the involvement of volunteers within Centre for Big Synergy

Preparation

Prior to recruiting volunteers, full consultation and discussion should take place with the executive team and advisers of Centre for Big Synergy to satisfy that there is a genuine need for volunteers and to develop a clear description of their role. A contact person within the section proposing to involve volunteers should be identified and the staff time and expenses to train, support and reimburse volunteers determined.

Recruitment

- Centre for Big Synergy has an Equal Opportunities Policy and will prevent discrimination particularly on the grounds of gender, marital status, disability, race, colour, religious belief, political belief, sexuality, nationality, ethnic origin, age, trade union activity, responsibility for dependents or employment status. (See statement and policy for details)
- In order to reach a wide section of the community, recruitment should be by a variety of means.
- Positive action in recruitment may be used for specific voluntary tasks. For example, specific work with minority ethnic groups.

Initial Contact

- People interested in becoming volunteers with Centre for Big Synergy should be provided detailed information on the recruitment portal or webpage. They should:
 - Be given written information regarding the role
 - Have their role explained and how it fits in with Centre for Big Synergy's overall aims and ethos
 - Have the next stages of becoming a volunteer with Centre for Big Synergy outlined
- If the volunteer wishes to proceed with the application at this stage, the volunteer should fill out the application form on the organisation's website or recruitment portal and submit it

Selection

- All volunteers should complete an application form.
- If volunteers may be working with vulnerable people, or in positions of trust, they should be asked to provide information on their application form about any criminal convictions that they may have.
- All information should be dealt with in the strictest confidence and should not necessarily prejudice the person being accepted for voluntary work.

Records

- Minimum details should be kept on volunteers. This will include the application form, references, identity documents, placement details, relevant information regarding the person's health, correspondence and any other relevant information such as emergency contact details.
- Record keeping must be secure but accessible to other members of staff if you are absent.
- The Data Protection Act enables people to access information held about them.

Induction

- Induction sessions should be provided for all new volunteers and should cover:
 - Role of volunteers
 - Responsibilities of volunteers
 - Arrangements for training, support and supervision
 - Contact person
 - Need for confidentiality
 - Ethos/values, etc
 - System for payment of expenses
 - Problem-solving procedures
 - Background to Centre for Big Synergy
 - Building orientation (if applicable)
 - Health and Safety
 - Meeting staff
- During induction, volunteers should receive the Centre for Big Synergy Volunteer Handbook.

Expectations of Volunteers

- Centre for Big Synergy should expect volunteers to:
 - Participate in induction sessions
 - Comply with existing policies and procedures
 - Undertake voluntary work at agreed times
 - Inform relevant staff if unable to attend
 - Give some notice if unable to continue volunteering
 - Raise any issues of concern relating to their voluntary work with the contact person.
 - Agree with the aims and ethos of the organisation

Placement

- Once a suitable voluntary placement has been identified, details about the frequency and length of commitment and nature of the voluntary activity should be determined and an established trial period agreed.
- Centre for Big Synergy reserves the right to ask volunteers to leave and will give reasons in writing if requested.

Support, Supervision and Problem-Solving

- Regular support/supervision should be available to each volunteer. The type and level of support will depend on the needs of the volunteer and the nature of their role. Full information on this will be provided during induction.
- Each volunteer should have a clearly identified supervisor who is responsible for the day to day management and guidance of the volunteer and who will be able to offer advice, support and feedback on a regular basis.
- Support prompt questions can be used if desired. A pro forma has been prepared.
- If a complaint about a volunteer arises, refer to the complaints flowchart.

Expenses

- The procedures for claiming expenses should be clear and accessible.
- All agreed out of pocket expenses should be reimbursed on production of receipts.
- The pro forma should be used and the supervisor should liaise with admin.

Insurance

- It should be ensured that volunteers have appropriate insurance cover in terms of employers and public liability.
